AT the Court at St. James's the 2d Day of February, 1743.

PRESENT,

The Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

Whereas upon Information given to their Excellencies the late Lords Juſtices, that the Plague had broke out at Smyrna and ſome other Places, where Goods apt to take Infection were uſually taken on Board; their Excellencies, for the Preſervation of the Health of his Majeſty's Subjects, and the better to prevent the ſaid Infection being brought hither, did, by their Order in Council of the 25th of October laſt, direct and require, that all Ships and Veſſels, that were then arrived and not unladen, and all Ships or Veſſels which ſhould thereafter arrive in any Port of this Kingdom from Smyrna, or any other Place that was or ſhould be infected with the Plague, ſhould make their Quarantine for Forty Days. And whereas by the Advices contained in a Report of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, this Day laid before his Majeſty in Council, it appears, that the Plague which broke out in Smyrna, had ceaſed in June laſt, and that there had been no Sickneſs there for ſome Months paſt, and that the Trade with that Place was free and open as formerly. His Majeſty taking the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, and being deſirous upon all Occaſions to promote the Trade of his Subjects, and to remove all Obſtructions laid thereupon, ſo far as may be conſiſtent with the Safety of the Publick, doth hereby order, with the Advice of his Privy Council, That all Ships and Veſſels which now are arrived, or ſhall hereafter arrive in any Port or Place within this Kingdom from Smyrna, do make their Quarantine for the Space of Fourteen Days only, but that they do obſerve the like Rules, Regulations and Reſtrictions, as are required by Order in Council of the 21ſt of July laſt, to be obſerved by Ships coming from or through the Mediterranean. And the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General and the reſt of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and his Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leomynſter, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Leomynſter, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our very great Concern at the imminent Dangers to which your Majeſty expoſed your moſt ſacred Perſon for the Good of the Common Cauſe, and moſt heartily to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Arms Abroad, and your ſafe ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions: Events! which have gained Glory to your Majeſty, Honour to this Nation, and given the greateſt Satisfaction to us, and all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

Permit us alſo, with Hearts full of Joy, to offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty on the happy Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and on the Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince, which add Strength to your Illuſtrious Houſe, to the Security of your Kingdoms, to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and to the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties — Bleſſings which nothing on Earth can parallel!

We moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, to accept the firmeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Duty, Fidelity and Affection to your Majeſty, and of our moſt ardent Wiſhes for your long and happy Reign over us; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Iſſue to ſit on the Throne of this Realm.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, was preſented to the King by Dr. George Lee, and John Garth, Eſq; who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of this your ancient and loyal Borough, to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival in this Kingdom, after the Hazards your Majeſty's Perſon was expoſed to in the Battle of Dettingen: And to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever retain the higheſt and moſt grateful Senſe of the great Share your Majeſty's perſonal Courage and Conduct had in the Succeſs of that important Day.

The great and glorious Spirit which ſo remarkably animated your Majeſty on that Occaſion, gives us a freſh and moſt convincing Proof of that Zeal and tender Concern, which, throughout the whole Courſe of your Reign, your Majeſty has always manifeſted for the Honour and Intereſt of your Britiſh Dominions; the Welfare and Happineſs of which we look upon to be moſt cloſely united with the Support of the Houſe of Auſtria.

The future Glories we may juſtly hope for from the firſt Proofs of the Conduct and Bravery of his Royal Highneſs the Duke; the Acceſſion of Strength to the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe, by the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark; and the Proſpect we have of a long Continuance of the Felicity we have hitherto enjoyed by the late Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Progeny, are Circumſtances that muſt fill every Britiſh Heart with the higheſt Satisfaction and Joy.

That the ſame good Providence which has hitherto bleſſed us with ſo large a Share of Proſperity, may continue to exert itſelf in Favour of your Majeſty's Endeavours for the Support of ſo juſt and glorious a Cauſe, and extend your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Line, for the Protection and Defence of the Rights and Liberties of Mankind, to lateſt Poſterity, will be the conſtant and ardent Wiſhes of,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.
